CHAIR, FAMILY MEDICINE
Georgetown University Medical Center (GUMC) seeks a Chairperson for its Department of Family Medicine. The Department encompasses a diverse array of clinicians and investigators involved in clinical care, education, and research in a variety of in-patient and ambulatory settings.

GUMC has made a commitment to expand the activities of the Department in its plans for an extended primary care network, and to enhance already strong programs in clinical research, particularly health services research, clinical economics, and health care policy. It is anticipated that the successful candidate will lead the Department to an increasingly important role at GUMC.

Applicants should be board certified in Family Medicine with leadership experience and a commitment to academic excellence. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply.

A curriculum vitae and cover letter should be sent to: Paul Katz, M.D., Chair, Department of Medicine, GUMC, 3800 Reservoir Rd., Washington, DC 20007-2197.

Georgetown University is an affirmative action, equal opportunity employer.

GERIATRIC FELLOWSHIPS
Available July 1, 1998, in an established ACGME accredited geriatric fellowship program. One- and two-year positions available. Strong clinical component. Faculty development including research design, pedagogic skills, curriculum design and evaluation and administrative development.

Family Practice Physicians

If you’re a physician looking for a professional life that keeps you attuned to high-tech medical advances and offers you financial rewards, opportunities for career development and excellent benefits, the Navy Medical Corps may be for you. As a Navy physician, you’ll practice in a truly collegial environment, where physicians support each other rather than engage in economic competition. You’ll be a commissioned officer and a respected member of the Navy’s prestigious health care delivery team.

You’ll work in clinical settings in the United States and around the world with top professionals and state-of-the-art equipment and facilities. Through funded continuing medical education and specialty training, you’ll have the opportunity to develop your full professional potential as well as the freedom to move from practice to research or teaching without losing seniority, salary level, or retirement benefits.

You’ll earn an excellent starting salary based on your ability and experience, and federal law provides free medical liability protection to Navy physicians. You may also be entitled to special pay in addition to your regular salary and allowances. Navy benefits include 30 days of paid vacation earned each year, free medical and dental care, tax-free housing and food allowance, an excellent retirement system and opportunities for free travel to some of the most exotic and beautiful places in the world.
