The Journal of the American Board of Family Practice

VOLUME 11, NUMBER 6

NOVEMBER-DECEMBER 1998

CONTENTS

ORIGINAL ARTICLES

Virtual Reality Flexible Sigmoidoscopy Simulator Training: Impact on Resident Training

Michael L. Tuggy

Oral Health Care Issues in HIV Disease: Developing a Core Curriculum for Primary Care Physicians

Clinical Feasibility of a Free-Weight Strength-Training Program for Older Adults

Patricia A. Brill, Janice C. Probst, David L. Greenhouse, Bruce Schell, Carol A. Macera

Use of the Health History as a Psychiatric Screening Tool

Douglas Post and Karl Miller

MEDICAL PRACTICE

Tuberculous Cerebellar Abscess

Abayomi G. Oshinowo, B. Wayne Blount, Lawrence L. Golusinski

EVIDENCE-BASED CLINICAL PRACTICE

Using Outcomes to Improve Quality of Research and Quality of Care

Richard A. Deyo

BRIEF REPORTS

Recognition and Management of Oral Health Problems in Older Adults by Physicians: A Pilot Study

Thomas V. Jones, Mitchel J. Siegel, John R. Schneider
CONTENTS

Continued

BRIEF REPORTS

Transient Hyperthyroidism in a Patient Taking Dietary Supplements Containing Kelp
B. Clair Eliason

Unintentional Carbon Monoxide Poisoning From an Unlikely Source
Tim Struttmann, Amy Scheerer, T. Scott Prince, Linda A. Goldstein

FAMILY PRACTICE - WORLD PERSPECTIVE

Legacy of the Secret War: Medical Needs in the UXO-Contaminated Areas in Laos
Masahiro Morikawa

REFLECTIONS IN FAMILY PRACTICE

Border Crossings: On the Boundary of the Physician-Patient Relationship
David Loxterkamp

BOARD NEWS

EDITORIAL

Will Virtual Reality Simulators End the Credentialing Arms Race in Gastrointestinal Endoscopy or the Need for Family Physician Faculty With Endoscopic Skills?
Wm. MacMillan Rodney

CORRESPONDENCE

BOOK REVIEWS

VOLUME 11 SUBJECT INDEX

VOLUME 11 AUTHOR INDEX

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING