

JABFM

JOURNAL OF THE AMERICAN BOARD OF FAMILY MEDICINE

VOLUME 32, NUMBER 4

JULY-AUGUST 2019

IN THIS ISSUE:

- Endoscopic Care by Family Physicians
- Medication Management Improves Providers' Work-Life
- High Risk Medication without Documented Contraception
- Walk-In Psychiatric Model for Integrated Care
- Implementation of Patient-Team Partnership
- Prediabetes at an Academic Practice
- Patient-Defined Visit Priorities: Psychosocial Versus Medical
- Housing Insecurity and Access to Care
- Retail Clinic Use among Medicare Beneficiaries
- Alternative Payment Impact on Visits and Scheduling
- Identifying Substance Use Using Frequency Questions
- Opioid Prescribing Intervention in Chronic Noncancer Pain
- Electronic Cigarettes and Smoking Reduction
- Knee Pain and Osteoarthritis among Overweight Women
- Social Risk Stratification in Primary Care
- Lifestyle Intervention Programs for Diabetes
- Rural, Sugar-Sweetened Beverage Intake
- Discussions about Driving Safety
- Opioid Prescribing and the Pain-Depression Dyad
- Family Medicine Transitional Care Service Line
- Drug-Induced Hyperpigmentation