

JABFM

JOURNAL OF THE AMERICAN BOARD OF FAMILY MEDICINE

VOLUME 33, NUMBER 1

JANUARY-FEBRUARY 2020

Special Opioid Issue

IN THIS ISSUE:

- Early-Career Physicians and Prescribing Buprenorphine
- Buprenorphine Prescribers for Medicare Patients
- Quality Improvement Toolkit to Improve Opioid Prescribing
- Risk-Reduction Tools and an Opioid-Prescribing Protocol
- Health Care Satisfaction Among Opioid Recipients
- Changes to Chronic Pain Management Plans
- Request Denial and Subsequent Patient Satisfaction
- Stimulant Use by Young Adults for ADHD
- Physicians' Response to Quality-of-Life Goals
- Patient Education Level and Antidepressants
- Co-Management for Sickle Cell Disease
- Ethical Questions Raised by the EHR
- Buprenorphine Prescribing by Family Physicians
- Financial Model for Opioid Use Disorder
- Safe Opioid Prescribing and Disorder Treatment
- Opioid Prescriptions for New Low Back Pain
- Anti-Hypertensive Medication Combinations
- Managing Patient Requests for Marijuana