

JABFM

JOURNAL OF THE AMERICAN BOARD OF FAMILY MEDICINE

VOLUME 34, NUMBER 5

SEPTEMBER–OCTOBER 2021

IN THIS ISSUE:

Hand Hygiene and Dermatitis During the Pandemic
Nonadherence Diagnoses in Diabetes Care
Family Physicians' Perception of the New mRNA COVID-19 Vaccines
Hospitalization Post-COVID-19 Infection for Non-COVID-19 Conditions
Receiving Assistance with Self-Reported Social Risks
Decision-Making About Prostate Cancer Screening Among Black Men
Rural Adolescent Immunization
Pain Prescriptions and Low Back Imaging in Primary Care
Yoga for Substance Use
C-Reactive Protein versus Erythrocyte Sedimentation Rate Implications
Diagnostic Accuracy of Skin Cancer by Family Physicians
Plan, Do, Study, Act Quality Improvement
Partnerships to Care for Patients During COVID-19
French General Practitioners and Patients with Long-COVID
Monitoring New Symptoms After COVID-19 Infection
Management of Eye Trauma for Primary Care
PRESSS: A New Name for an Old Problem
One-Third of Family Physicians Remain in Independent Practice
Life in Private Practice
Central versus Local Quality Efforts
Reimaging and Rebuilding Primary Care
Service Agreements and Frequency of Primary Care Visits
Expanding Family Medicine Scholarship Using the Minnesota Model