FELLOWSHIP IN RURAL FAMILY MEDICINE

Tacoma Family Medicine (TFM) announces openings for August 1, 1997 in our Fellowship in Rural Family Medicine. TFM, an 18-year-old Family Practice Residency affiliated with the University of Washington, has a strong history of training physicians for rural practice. We are currently in the 7th year of our Fellowship in Rural Family Medicine and 5 Fellows are currently participating in the program. It is anticipated that the Rural Fellowship will accept 5 physicians for the year beginning August 1, 1997. The curriculum will consist of 6 months of intensive training in high-risk and operative obstetrics and 6 months of electives tailored to the needs of the individual. Options for the individually tailored time include adult and pediatric critical care, all medical and surgical specialties, emergency services, public health, practice management, etc. As the only civilian residency in Tacoma, WA, located on beautiful Puget Sound, this is an ideal training site. Contact David Acosta, M.D., Program Director, Tacoma Family Medicine, 521 Martin Luther King Jr. Way Street, Tacoma, WA 98405 for details. Applicants should be finishing a Family Practice Residency in 1997 or have previously completed residency training in Family Medicine and have an interest in rural practice.

GET A LIFE! COME TO MONTANA: Live in beautiful Montana and enjoy the best life has to offer! Excellent opportunity for a talented, dedicated BC/BE family practitioner to be part of a newly established and growing community health center providing care to primarily medicaid/low-to-moderate income patients. We are located in beautiful Great Falls, Montana, with ready access to outdoor recreation activities, good schools, and affordable housing. Excellent salary and full benefits. Shared call, beautiful facility, state-of-the-art equipment, generous support staff including a social worker and your own full-time nurse. We offer all this and more, along with the satisfaction of knowing that you can make a profound impact on the health and well-being of your patients and the community. Interested physicians should contact Cherry Loney, Executive Director, City-County Health Department, 1130 17th Avenue South, Great Falls, Montana 59405. Phone (406) 454-6950; fax (406) 454-6959. Anxiety Disorders: Human Cost—Meeting the Challenge

Anxiety Disorders Association of America hosts 17th National Conference
March 20-23, 1997
New Orleans, Louisiana

WHAT: The Anxiety Disorders Association of America is a non-profit group dedicated to promoting the prevention and cure of anxiety disorders and improving the lives of all people who suffer from them. The theme of their upcoming national conference is "Anxiety Disorders: Human Cost—Meeting the Challenge." The scheduled sessions, open to all attendees, will feature national experts sharing the latest information on what causes, perpetuates, and relieves the full spectrum of anxiety disorders. The conference chair will be Jonathan R. T. Davidson, MD, Professor of Psychiatry and Director of the Anxiety and Traumatic Stress Program at Duke University Medical Center, Durham, NC.

WHEN: March 20-23, 1997

WHERE: The Hotel Intercontinental
New Orleans, Louisiana
For reservations: (504) 525-5566.

WHY: Anxiety disorders affect 1 in 10 Americans every year and result in tremendous economic and social costs. Anxiety disorders—including panic disorder, phobias, obsessive-compulsive disorder, posttraumatic stress disorder, and generalized anxiety disorder—are the most common of all psychiatric illnesses and are still often misdiagnosed by physicians. With appropriate care, patients can lead normal productive lives.

CONTACT: Those interested in attending the conference should call Monica Malouf of the Anxiety Disorders Association of America at (301) 229-1037.
