

CALL FOR PAPERS

JABFM.ORG

Veterans' Health Special Issue DEADLINE UPDATED

OVERVIEW

The JABFM is soliciting papers that address the health of veterans and health care delivery to this vulnerable population. We seek papers from authors for whom veterans represent a subpopulation of their patients as well as from investigators that exclusively care for veterans. We encourage submissions from all medical specialties and interdisciplinary teams.

TOPICS

The following research topics are of high priority for this theme issue:

- Screening for veteran status and conditions prevalent among the veteran population.
- System-based interventions designed to improve health care delivery for veterans.
- Clinical interventions designed to improve the health and well-being of veterans.
- Mental health disorders, including PTSD, frequently seen in veterans.
- Physical conditions and disabilities common in the veteran population.
- Medical concerns unique to women veterans.
- The special needs of veterans' families.

DEADLINE

The manuscript submission deadline for consideration for this theme issue is Friday, September 11, 2020 at 23:59 PST. Please let us know beforehand if you plan to submit by sending an email message to the JABFM Editorial Office: jabfm@med.wayne.edu
